SATURDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 26.

Another Shock.

A dispatch from Nice says another earthquake shock was felt in that city yesterday morning. The disturbance was slight.

Dispatches from Rome give the following official list of killed and wounded: Bajardo, 300 killed and wounded; Diano Marino, 250 killed and injured; Bressano, 50 killed and 36 injured; Diano Castello, 30 killed; Castellano, 30 killed and many injured. The number of persons killed is less than was supposed. It is estimated that in the province of Porto Maurizio 570 were killed and 156 injured. In the province of Genoa 34 were killed and 37 injured. Bajardo and Diano Marino were the only places destroyed. Cervo was only partially damaged. The churches at Bajardo, Castellano and Aurigo were thrown down by the shock.

Dispatches from Genoa say that the population slept outdoors Thursday night. Many persons went on board ships in the harbor, and 20,000 fled from the city by rail.

At a house near Diano Marino a ball was proceeding when the shocks came. The building was completely wrecked, and a terrible loss of life resulted. The dancers lay dead in heaps upon the ground. Many of the houses destroyed had large tanks underneath, which were filled with new olive oil intended for exportation to France and Germany.

A party of soldiers, while exploring the ruins, found Judge Rossi lying beneath a mass of debris. He was still alive. While the men were trying to extricate him a beam fell, killing the Judge and wounding one of the soldiers.

Flammarion and other French astronomers predict other shocks, but they say the disturbances will probably be less severe.

Slight damage was done in Basses Alpes. In the department of Var the walls of houses and churches were cracked. No lives were lost. At Nice and Cannes the panic is subsiding, and the inhabitants who have been camping out are returning to their homes. Thursday's shock destroyed the arches of the Cathedral Church of the Conception at Nice.

The Paris hotels are crowded with fugitives from the Riviera. Many reached the city but partially dressed, and others without luggage. A number of ladies are suffering from illness caused by fright during the earthquakes.

Fifteen thousand persons have left Nice, and the exodus continues. Throughout the Riviera the railway stations are thronged with people anxious to get away.

It has transpired that during Wednesday's panic a French countess gave birth to a child in the public gardens at Nice.

"It Knocks the Spots."

and everything in the name of eruptions, blotches, pimples, ulcers, scrofulous humors, and incipient consumption, which is nothing more nor less than scrofula of the lungs, completely out of the system. It stimulates and invigorates the liver, tones up the stomach, regulates the bowels, purifies the blood, and builds up the weak places of the body. It is a purely vegetable compound, and will do more than is claimed for it. We refer to Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery."
